QA Review Summary

Soloman:

A Quality Assurance Review has been conducted on your COR Maintenance Audit Report for FieldCore. This report also serves as your Internal Auditor Qualification Report.

Your first QA Review score 80%. This report highlights both the strengths in the audited HSMS and existing areas for improvement.

Any errors found in your report that meet one or more of the following criteria are considered "critical":

- Scores have not been applied per the guidelines,
- Correct validation methods have not applied,
- Notes do not adequately justify the score(s), and
- Contradictions were found between questions in an Element.

Your report was found to have critical errors. Notes have been left in the report to provide directions on making the required corrections. Most of your critical errors are due to you simply not following the guidelines.

A note has been made on the report regarding you marking Element 4 N/A. For you to mark Element 4 N/A, you must receive permission from Alberta OHS as your company is well past the employee limit requiring an HSC/HSR. AASP will also be sending you a note regarding this.

Your SFIs are often incomplete. Suggestions must always be complete and actionable to meet audit requirements.

Some of your Strength Statements need moving and/or updating. Please ensure once you have updated the report you update the Executive Summary.

Errors in multi-part questions will have the question number only listed on the QA form, and a note left on the question to state which part needs correction.

SFIs not required by the percentage awarded (85% or above) should not be included in the report itself, as they would then be added to the action plan, which may lead to more urgent items to be missed or overlooked. Include any extra suggestions you want to include in the 'Additional Information' section at the end of the report.

Remember, QA reviewers do not proofread your report for grammatical issues. Please ensure you do a full proofread before finalizing the report.

Once you have made the required corrections, submit the report to the AASP for correction verification. Once the errors are confirmed to be addressed, the report can be processed by the AASP and submitted to the company for their consideration.

Thank you for your submission.

Regards,

Reviewer 111

Second Review

Soloman,

A second review has been completed on your report. New critical errors have been found due to you completing Element Four.

The only question in Element Four that is not applicable to your company is question 4.3, since your company requires a full Health and Safety Committee. All other questions in Element Four must be fully answered (specific to question) in the findings with relevant SFIs. Please see the notes on Element Four for directions on how to make the required corrections.

There are also critical errors from your first review that were not addressed. Please make the corrections and submit for a third and final QA review.

Thank you for the corrections made.

Regards,

Reviewer 111

Final Review

Soloman,

A third and final review has been completed on your report and all critical errors have been marked as addressed. The only remaining error is in a single SFI.

Your final score is 99%.

Thank you for the corrections made.

Regards,

Reviewer 111
