LEAN

We challenge ourselves to be better every day. LEAN is how we work.

We embrace Safety, Quality, Delivery and Cost as our compass.

We engage each other to identify and solve problems using data.

We balance long-term breakthroughs with continuous improvements that drive sustainable growth.

EXAMPLE BEHAVIORS

Inconsistent

- Demonstrates limited familiarity with Lean concepts
- Does not take advantage of resources available to learn more about Lean
- Prioritizes delivery or cost over safety and quality
- Jumps to solutions before truly understanding root cause
- Misses opportunities to go to genba to better understand what's happening on the "front line"
- Accepts poor quality work from self and/or others
- Creates parallel processes that deviate from standard work

Successful

- Stops work for themselves and others when suspecting a safety or quality related risk
- Takes time and care to ensure work is done with the highest quality
- Informs others of issues or areas of "red" in a timely manner
- Ask questions and better understand the context/challenges; goes to genba
- Uses data to identify and address root cause to prevent a problem from recurring
- Achieves measurable improvements that are sustainable over time
- Delivers results aligned with Safety, Quality, Delivery and Cost (in that order)

Exceptional

In addition to expectations defined in Successful ...

- Applies Lean principles to create broader impact beyond own scope of responsibility
- Takes initiative to proactively establish standard work for an inefficient or poorly defined process
- Challenges others to ensure their decisions/actions align with Safety, Quality, Delivery and Cost
- Identifies opportunities to stop doing non-value-added work; creates capacity for greater focus on priorities and/or capability building

- Shows care and appreciation for others' experiences in a way that encourages authenticity and openness
- Reaches across teams, functions and/or businesses to solicit a diversity of stakeholder perspectives before taking a decision/action
- Works through competing priorities/interests to arrive at a solution in the best interest of GE Vernova
- Supports the ongoing development of others through feedback, coaching, and/or resources
- Inspires others by connecting our day-to-day impact with our GE Vernova purpose in a meaningful way

ACCOUNTABLE

We are ACCOUNTABLE individually and collectively to deliver on our purpose and commitments.

We build trust and credibility by acting with integrity and communicating with transparency.
We take ownership in everything we do, continuously learning from our experiences.
We uphold our commitment to social responsibility.

Inconsistent

- Is slow or reluctant to raise issues that need to be addressed; glosses over "the red" instead of raising/addressing it
- Becomes discouraged by challenges or setbacks; is easily overwhelmed by stretch goals
- Fails to share information that should be provided to others; is perceived by others as "controlling" information flow
- Does not ask for feedback or fails to apply feedback going forward
- Places responsibility for mistakes or shortfalls on other individuals/teams

Successful

- Takes personal responsibility for decisions, actions, and mistakes; follows through on commitments
- Learns from own mistakes and applies learnings going forward
- Communicates with clarity and transparency, even when messages are difficult to deliver
- Solicits and shows appreciation for feedback from others; applies feedback to improve performance
- Provides respectful, timely and specific feedback to others in a constructive manner
- Identifies opportunities (big or small) that could improve our social and environmental impact

Exceptional

In addition to expectations defined in Successful ...

- Engages in constructive debate; conveys sensitive information with tact
- Holds others accountable for their commitments in a respectful, collaborative manner
- Persists in accomplishing objectives despite obstacles and setbacks; pushes self and helps others achieve stretch goals
- Shares accountability for achieving broader objectives for the site, function, and/or business beyond own area of responsibility
