PRIORITY SETTING

EMPLOYEE GUIDE

PERFORMANCE @ GE VERNOVA

PROCESS

1 Priority Setting:
employees set 3-5 robust Priorities for the year that reflect the most critical areas of work – these Priorities can be iterative throughout the year.

2 Midyear:
employees and People Leaders discuss progress against Priorities, any changes needed, and actions needed for a successful second half of the year.

3 Annual Review:
employees and People Leaders end of year evaluation to discuss full-year performance against Priorities and demonstration of the GE Vernova Way.

TIMELINE

The Importance of Priority Setting

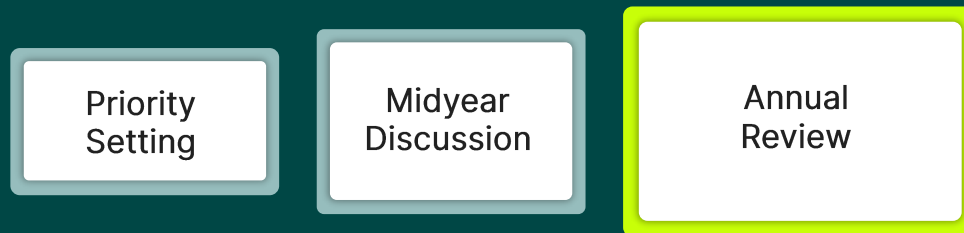

WHY IS PRIORITY SETTING IMPORTANT?

- Essential for ensuring our work is aligned to customer needs and the five strategic imperatives
- Helps employees focus on what matters the most to the business and their customers by prioritizing on doing fewer things better

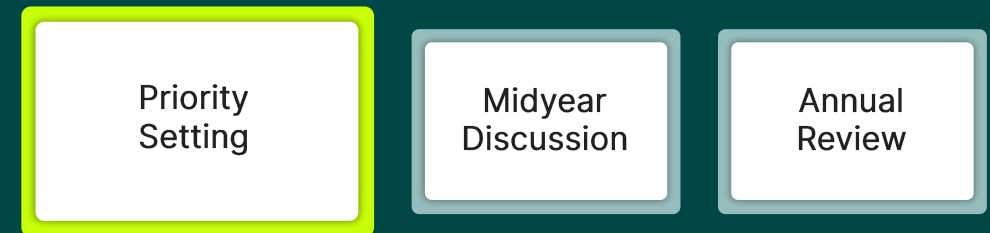

WHAT IS THE COST OF POOR QUALITY?

- Unclear priorities lead to ineffective execution
- Employees have lack of clarity on expectations
- Employees may be unclear on how their actions contribute to the success of the organizations' priorities
- Harder to effectively and impartially measure performance and provide effective feedback

Often the focus is weighted towards the year end process ...

... Let's shift our efforts to be front loaded and set ourselves up for success

Writing Priorities

Things to consider

CHECKLIST

What makes a good Priority?

1. Focused on critical, impactful work – keep it to 3-5 Priorities per year
2. Use the SMART framework:
 - ✓ Specific: clearly and succinctly define what needs to be accomplished
 - ✓ Measurable: have a metric that tracks progress and defines success
 - ✓ Achievable: ensure the goal is challenging, but also attainable
 - ✓ Relevant: align the priority to broader team or organization priorities
 - ✓ Timebound: set a deadline or timeline to achieve the priority
3. Review and agree on your 3-5 Priorities with your People Leader by February 28

LEVERAGING AMP

Recommendation: Use GPT-5.1 for best results

DON'T

- Use external AI tools (Amp only)
- Enter employee-specific information
- Copy-paste Amp output without review
- Be vague with prompts or questions

DO

- Follow Amp user guidelines
- Use specific prompts (see below for examples) – quality prompts = quality Amp outputs
- Carefully review and edit Amp-generated content

Try these prompts to help draft your Priorities:

- Context: I am a [insert job title] and I need to create a priority that outlines how I'm going to [insert general outcome or achievement]. Help needed: write a priority using the SMART framework and break it down into quarterly milestones (one milestone per quarter). Use Smart Brevity principles when generating the priority.
- Context: I am a [insert job title] and I need help drafting priorities that are aligned with my People Leaders / organizations priorities – [insert People Leader's / organization's priorities that relate to your role]. Help needed: write me 3-5 priorities that are aligned with these priorities, following the SMART framework, with milestone per quarter, and using the Smart Brevity principles when generating the priority.

Use these prompts to help improve quality of your Priorities:

- Does this priority meet the SMART framework? Include suggestions on how to improve my priority.
- Help me rewrite this priority more succinctly using Smart Brevity principles, while maintaining the SMART framework.
- Help me break down this priority into key milestones, including dates.

WORKDAY STEPS

STEP BY STEP GUIDE: CREATE PRIORITIES

GETTING STARTED

1. Log into Workday.
2. From the Workday homepage, click your profile photo (or the cloud) in the top right and navigate to View Profile.
3. From the menu on the left, click Performance

WORKDAY STEPS

STEP BY STEP GUIDE: CREATE PRIORITIES

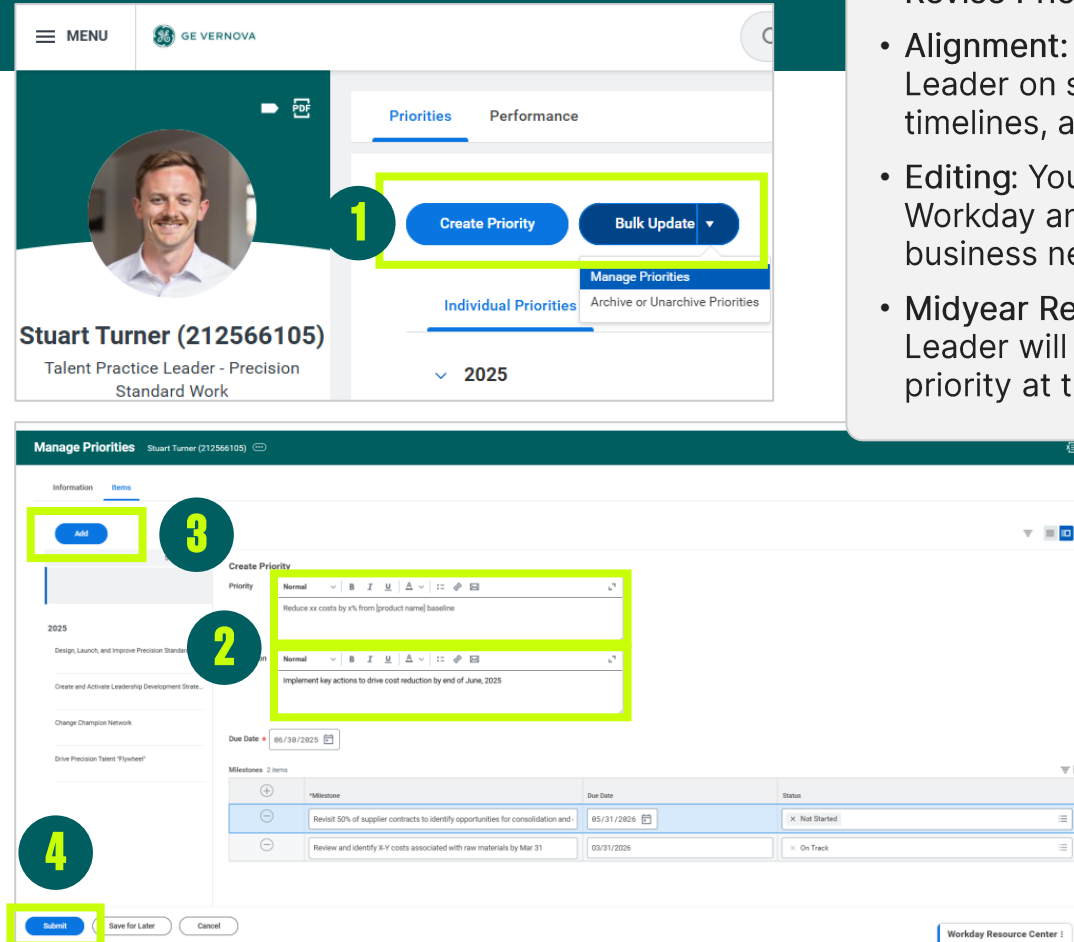

PRIORITIES

1. From the Priorities tab, you have two options:
 1. You can add a single priority by using the Create priority button, OR
 2. You can add multiple priorities by clicking the button Bulk Update > Manage Priorities > Add
2. For each priority, you will need to name the priority and provide a due date. A priority description is optional, but helpful for additional details to ensure your priority is robust and measurable. Milestones can be leveraged to outline your action plan.
3. If using the Bulk Update, continue to click Add for each priority.
4. Once complete, click Submit.

Notification: Your People Leader will receive a notification regarding your priority(ies) entry.

KEY REMINDERS AFTER PRIORITY SETTING

- Save for Later: Priorities saved for later are visible only to you and are not submitted. To finalize them, click Revise Priority and Submit by Feb 28.
- Alignment: Agree with your People Leader on success measures, timelines, and outcomes.
- Editing: You can update priorities in Workday anytime by using this guide if business needs change.
- Midyear Review: You and your People Leader will review progress on each priority at the Midyear Review in July.

The screenshot displays the 'Priorities' tab in the Workday interface. The top section shows the user's profile (Stuart Turner) and the 'Priorities' tab selected. The 'Create Priority' button is highlighted with a green box and a red circle labeled '1'. Below it, the 'Bulk Update' button is also highlighted with a green box and a red circle labeled '2'. The 'Manage Priorities' button is highlighted with a green box and a red circle labeled '3'. The 'Add' button is highlighted with a green box and a red circle labeled '4'. The 'Create Priority' form is shown with a text area for the priority description and a 'Due Date' field. The 'Milestones' table is also visible, showing a list of milestones with their due dates and status.

Milestone	Due Date	Status
Revisit 50% of supplier contracts to identify opportunities for consolidation and...	05/31/2026	Not Started
Review and identify S-Y costs associated with raw materials by Mar 31	03/31/2026	On Track

PRIORITY SETTING

ADDITIONAL TIPS FOR PEOPLE LEADERS

PEOPLE LEADER CHECKLIST

Make this a two-way conversation – ask the employee questions, listen, and provide feedback.

THINGS TO CONSIDER:

- Align Priorities: Ensure each priority supports team or business goals and GE Vernova strategic imperatives.
 - Ensure priorities match the role level of the employee
 - More senior: broader scope and more strategic
 - More junior: more focused and execution-based
 - Support Development: Discuss how priorities support employee growth and development opportunities.
- Clarify Ownership & Support:
 - Define employee-owned outcomes
 - Identify other stakeholders to be involved
 - Specify how you will support the employee
 - Define Success: Be prepared to define “Successful” vs. “Exceptional” outcomes.
 - ERG Leadership: If your employee is in an ERG leadership role, one of their 3-5 Priorities should be related to the successful delivery of their ERG role.

WORKDAY STEPS

STEP BY STEP GUIDE: ASSIGN PRIORITIES (PEOPLE LEADER TASK)

Use the Assign Priorities feature when multiple employees are working on the same priorities. This ensures consistency amongst the team. Please be sure you have discussed and aligned on the priority with the team before assigning in Workday.

GETTING STARTED

1. Log into Workday.
2. In the search bar, type My Team's Priorities.
3. Select My Team's Priorities from the search results.
4. In the Pop Up, select the appropriate Supervisory Org (note: for People Leader's with only one organization, this will be prepopulated, and View By should be Worker). Click OK.
5. The table of Employees and their priorities is displayed. At the top of the page, select Add Priority to Employees. (Note: You can edit priorities for individual Employees from the table by clicking Edit in that Employee row.)
6. Select Create New Priority or click Copy Existing Priority.
7. Under Assign To, either select multiple names in the Employees field or use the Organizations field to select an entire team.
8. Click OK.
9. Complete the priority fields.
10. Deselect the Editable checkbox if you do not want the Employee(s) to edit the priority.
11. Click Submit to assign the priority to the selected Employee(s).

Notification: The Employee(s) receive a notification that their priorities have been modified.
