Employee Evaluation

- Comment:
1. SAFETY
 - Safety Integration: Ensured all updated course outlines and new learning paths strictly define prerequisite requirements, maintaining a safe and controlled environment for all participants prior to lab access.
 2. QUALITY & CAPABILITY
 - Curriculum Standardization: Clearly defined internal learning paths with updated course numbering and refined outlines, ensuring consistent quality and clear progression for all instructors and students.

- NPS & Lab Enhancements: Developed and piloted the FFB course, achieving a 100% NPS score by prioritizing hands-on lab time. Redesigned the Controls OE learning path with clear, level-specific objectives, directly addressing prior NPS feedback to increase practical lab application.
- Bench Expansion: Successfully hired instructors from diverse professional backgrounds to increase capability, including the onboarding of Mahesh to spearhead specialized Network and CyberSecurity content.

3. DELIVERY

- Operational Readiness: Established a consistent rhythm with Controls Engineering teams to ensure NPI (New Product Introduction) readiness and continuous material improvement.
- Strategic Planning: Prioritized material development to meet increased training demand, specifically dedicating seats in FFB and Control Server training to accelerate cross-training for the controls team.
- Process Discipline: Maintained 100% compliance with timecard and project coding, utilizing a weekly review cadence to ensure accurate reporting and delivery tracking.

4. COST

- Continuous Improvement: Championed a "continuous improvement" mindset, implementing a mandatory review/update cycle for materials after each course delivery to reduce rework and ensure cost-efficient, up-to-date training.

5. CULTURE

- Leadership Growth: Following the Glint survey, I completed targeted leadership development training to shift my management style from top-down direction to a guidance and support model.
- Team Empowerment: Created a culture where team members are empowered to question decisions and provide business reasoning, fostering accountability. I regularly seek direct feedback and hold consistent follow-ups on task status to support professional growth and team autonomy.

- Standards of Excellence: Established high performance standards across the team, ensuring a consistent focus on accountability in the delivery of world-class controls training.

I am deeply committed to the GE Vernova

Way, leveraging my strengths in Innovation, Customers, and One Team to modernize our controls training and ensure our collective success. I pride myself on fostering an inclusive environment that breaks down silos, encouraging my team to grow and win together as a cohesive unit. While I have made significant progress in curriculum development and student satisfaction, I am proactively focusing on the following areas for the second half of the year:

- Lean: I am committed to deepening my mastery of Lean methodologies. Beyond standardizing material updates, I plan to focus on data-driven problem solving to further reduce waste and optimize our training delivery processes.
- Accountability: I am refining my leadership approach to ensure that transparency and ownership remain at the forefront of our team's culture, holding ourselves to the highest standards as we scale our capacity and impact.
